EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with William G. Abbatt on January 5, 2009.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 1, lines 8 - 10 now states --a mixing epicyclic gear train having inputs drivably connected to the variator output shaft and the system input shaft and having an output which is selectively connectable to the system output shaft via one of a first braking element or a second clutch element; and--

Claim 6, lines 7 - 9 now states --a mixing epicyclic gear train having inputs drivably connected to the variator output shaft and the system input shaft and having an output which is selectively connectable to the system output shaft via one of a first braking element or a second clutch element; and--

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record fails to disclose or render obvious a multi-regime, continuously variable ratio transmission system comprising the combination of a variator connected to the system input shaft, an output from the variator selectively connectable to the system output shaft via a clutch, an epicyclic gear train having inputs connected to the variator output and the system input and an output of the epicyclic gear train selectively connected to the system output shaft via one of a first braking element or a second clutch element, and the prior art particularly fails to disclose or render obvious the system having a second braking element adapter to lock the output of the mixing epicyclic gear train in a stationary position.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
